Captain's Corner

We had a glorious first game in more than 6 months since lockdown at Stellenbosch Golf Club with 116 Nomads, guests and visitors enjoying the great course under blue skies. The day had a festive feel to it and we enjoyed eats and drinks on the course kindly donated by some of our loyal members. Prize giving was held using 4 different areas around the Club where TV monitors made everyone part of the formalities.

It worked out well and very pleasing was the huge number of players that attended this prize giving. Thanks to all that played and stayed on for prize giving, and an ever bigger thanks to our sponsors and those who donated money on the day!

The highlights were inductions of new members, and without a doubt the presence of 4 youngsters from the Andrew Murray Home for Abandoned and Neglected Children. They touched the hearts of all present, and we raised a further R15600 that evening for this Home. This took the total income of our first 2 raffles to a staggering R32000. The 2 beneficiaries that benefited from these 2 raffles were the Andrew Murray Home and Boland Ladies - to help some of the ladies entering tournaments.

Welcome back to Nomads Sam Hulme and welcome to your new Nomads family Marco Anelli! Marco and his proposer, Clive Battison, played in my fourball and took on the old guys - GM of Stellenbosch Golf Club Dr Chris van der Merwe, and myself. Our experience got the better of the long hitting youngsters but we had huge fun.

Our next 2 raffles will start in October and again we will have 2 beneficiaries - the Hermanus Child and Family Services and the De La Bat School for the Deaf in Worcester.

I look forward to our next game at Kuilsriver on 8 October. Like many golf clubs they also desperately need our full field and the bar turnover that goes with it. We will again tee off early and will again start prize giving early. This time there will be no last minute auctions so we'll finish nice and early! :)

I also decided to not risk many people showering and you may again attend in your playing clothes - with the exception of the few in front at the altar. We will again lower the playing fees for the day. You will only pay R250 and there will be no money collected for draws. We will also play the next round of the Twenty Twenty Lockdown Knockout and first round of the Plate at Kuilsriver on that day.

Thanks to all our loyal members and sponsors who make it possible for us to do what we're there for - caring for the needy and the furtherance of golf. We will soon announce great news regarding our Furtherance of Golf initiatives which Theo Swart will manage, and VC Harry Treurnich is about to announce his beneficiaries for his Andrew Mentis fundraising projects.

Nomads regards

Alten Altie Hulme

Lockdown Knockout

Erinvale Golf Club - Pre-match discussion & Results

Wouter Geldenhuys & Lerenze Stander vs Louis Louw & Charl Basson

We have our own Mr Geldenhuys starting us off for the Knockout 2020. With hardly any shots given between the pairs, I reckon this is going to be the toughest match of the day.

Willem Malherbe & Wessel Kotze vs Ross Lubbe & Clive Battison

With a bang right after the first 4 ball we have two up and coming pro's from the Royal St Rand against two amateurs from Stellenbosch. With quite a few shots given to the amateurs, the pro's will have to work hard hole by hole to win this one.

John Reyneke & Albertus van Zyl vs Mike Daneel & Derrick Du Plessis

I'm sure Derrick will be excited to play top golf on his home course and try put early pressure on his opponents. But if things don't run smooth for Derrick and Mike, the trick will be to bring out some Jagermeister for John and Albertus and see the tables turn!

John VD Spuy & Pieter Rietveld vs Schalk Liebenberg & Ivan Roos

John and Pieter are already at a disadvantage with Ivan been on his home course. But we all know Schalk will come prepaid and bring at least 30 balls for this tough course!

Jannie Joubert & Johan Bredell vs Ronnie Kingwill & Richard Daneel

There's going to be no messing around in this fourball. Range, putting Green, whiskey and milk and the bulls will be out for each other.

Pierre Meyer & Piet Meyer vs Jacque Retief & Carl Reinders

We know if there is no excitement in the golf here, a Thailand trip will definitely be organised to spice things up for them.

Clinton Schweers & Deon Prinsloo vs Benna Theron & Deon van Rensburg

Very competitive Nomads in this fourball. Win or lose, there will be more competing and betting on the Dart board or pool table after this game.

Bernard Germishuys & Andre Steyl vs Gordon Schultz & Joseph Huskisson

With Bernard and Andre been members of a little known club (Hex River), they will definitely not go down without a fight against there opponents. "P" is the word!

Pierre Calitz & Hennie Strauss vs Theo Swart & Koos Senekal

Plenty skill in this fourball. If Pierre and Hennie don't perform to their natural standards, there will definitely be free coaching lessons from Oom Koos!

Henry De Graeff & Frank Buys vs Neil Berry & Benjamin Droomer

Partners Henry and Frank hands down with the most experience in golf are going to give their opponents no mercy. But will experience take them all the way to SWEET victory?

Hein Lubbe & Gary Pnematicatos vs Nico Ferreira & Gideon Strydom

Oooo we know this 4 ball is a big one. With comments from the young guns already flying this week we know they are pumped. But if the Spice and music is flowing and the Greek Gods have joined for the round, they will need more than just big talk to win this one!

Marius Swanepoel & Kurn Thomson vs Ambrosee Da Rocha & Mark Africa

This fourball is a unique one with a player coming all the way from India. I hope he has climatized and practised with his partner this week as they are giving away 13 shots in a flash.

Alten Hulme & Jaco Minnie vs Wernher Bock & Sam van Rensburg

Our Captain is following the pack from behind (and with handicaps like this I'm glad they are) - we know that this is going to be the match of the day. No matter who wins - there is going to be a side bet or 2 on this one!

No man is an island entire of itself;
Every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main;

Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind;

And therefore, never send to know for whom the bell tolls;
It tolls for thee.
